

In the Lake of the Woods: Historical Fiction vs Historical Record Pathfinder

Databases

The following databases can be located from the Carmel HS Media Center website or a MyCCS account.

Inspire – Select “Biographies” – Select “Biography in Context” – Type in “Calley, William”

- Contains a variety of media and research materials from print to audio

Inspire – Select “Academic” – Select “Academic Search Premiere” – Use various search terms

- Use the advanced search option
- Use the limiters on the side once your results are supplied (Magazines might be easier to understand than academic journals, for example)
- ALWAYS select “full text” from the advanced search page

Inspire – Select “K-12” – Select “MAS Ultra – School Edition” – Use various search terms

- Same as for the previous example

CHS SIRS Decades

- If you need login information, it is as follows
 - Carmelhigh
 - Media
- This resource offers a multitude of media as you will see on the search page. Information is organized by decade, and fully searchable.

CHS eLibrary/PROquest – Select from any of the four databases available from this page

CHS Gale – Several databases from which you can choose – Select one at a time to search

- Military and Intelligence Collection
- Student Resources in Context
- U.S. History in Context
- Gale Virtual Reference Library

CHS Grolier – Select High School (tab in top third of page) – Use various search terms

CHS ABC-CLIO – Select any number of the databases that might pertain to this topic – select one database to use or check mark the ones you want and use the big search bar

Print

In addition to the many, many databases we offer to cover this topic, we also have a large variety of books. Many of them have been pulled for you and are on the cart here in the room. Please use the indices to find what you need. Be sure to return the books to the cart for others to use. After school on Wednesday, these items will be available for checkout.